

Artist's Statement

I've always loved art but didn't start painting seriously until my children were grown With a push from my son and daughter,
I began taking classes with oils.

Now I paint whenever I can, alone or with friends.

Painting is relaxation, a way to remove myself from the daily routine.

"I walk... I talk... I paint!"
